Women Tennis Stars

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
NEWPORT, R. I., July 11.—Two tennis tournaments have neen arranged for next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Casino, the first, an invitation singles tournament for women, to be played mornings, and the second, a doubles tournament for women, to be contested afternoons. The tennis committee of the Casino, which made the arrangements, believes these affairs will prove big attractions, especially since the eight women, who will be invited to play in the singles, are among the best in the country, including young Miss Helen Wills, of California.

Invitations were issued to-day to the women stars, who are at present playing in the Rhode Island tournament. The plan for the singles event is to have four matches on Monday, the semi-finals Tuesday and the finals Wednesday morning. For the doubles each visiting star will be paired with an expert player of the summer colony, thus adding to the interest, as several of the summer residents are proficient at tennis. Mrs. Barger Wallach is chairman of the Casino tennis committee.

State of his mother, Mrs. Raymond T. Baker.

Other arrivals at the Aspinwall include Mr. Charles Haudnut, Mr. John Carrington Y estate of Zabriski, Mrs. James N. Towne. Miss Margaret R. Danf. Mrs. Ruth Litt. Dr. J. Ralph Jac Mrs. Harold Ellis Yarnall, of Philadelphia; Mr. John Maine, of the British Consultate, New York, and Mrs. Charles Robinson Smith at the Dugway in Stock bridge.

Not by a long shot! They were grins on their faces and the sparkle of expectancy was in their eyes. And silence was as far from them as 586 pairs of lungs could drive it.

lence was as far from them as 586 pairs of lungs could drive it.

They hadn't any princesses for friends—you could tell that at a glance. Yet they felt themselves the salt of the carth. Why? They were going to the country—no, that's not right, it was THE COUNTRY they were going to. They were off to the green fields. They were bound for a land of play. Yesterday began the great adventure for them, an adventure full of thrills, beginning with a long ride on the "rail-road cara," continuing with a view of mountains and forests, going on through plunges into cooling streams and lakes, spreading out into acquaintance with cows and chickens, birds and flowers, growing crops and loaded fruit trees, swelling to a climax in the making of good friends.

They went—to life and health and good time.

Who? The Tribune "Fresh Airs," who were beginning their vacations. They began leaving at 8 in the morning and the last got off late last night. The first are now in Greenfield, Mass. The last to start were going to Perry, N. Y. Between the first and the last went some who now are in Plattsburg, others in northern Vermont, still others who will spend the next two weeks in Hinsdale and Winchester, N. H., and yet others whose vacations will be spent in South Deerfield, Mass, and Oxford, N. J.

It was a day's work to get them off, but they will get $.104 days of play from that day's work. Though they may count no princesses of the blood royal among their friends they will be treated like princes and princesses by the royal good friends who have invited them for vacations to their country homes.
